 - (i) concerns the management or affairs of a body corporate, or a managed investment scheme or a unit trust; or
 - (ii) involves fraud or dishonesty and relates to a corporation or managed investment schemes, a unit trust or Securities.

(2) Where the Commission has reason to believe and suspect that unacceptable circumstances, including prudent corporate governance, may have occurred, the Commission may make such investigations as it thinks expedient.

55. APPOINTMENT OF INVESTIGATING OFFICERS.

(1) The Commission may appoint such number of persons or officers to be known as Investigating Officers as it considers necessary for the purposes of carrying out investigations of any offence under this Act, the Capital Market Act 2015, the Central Depositories Act 2015 or any other Acts where the Commission is the enforcing authority.

(2) An Investigating Officer appointed under Subsection (1), shall have all the powers given to any person for the purposes of carrying out investigation of any offence under this Act, the Capital Market Act 2015, the Central Depositories Act 2015 or any other Acts where the Commission is the enforcing authority.

56. POWERS OF THE INVESTIGATING OFFICERS.

(1) An Investigating Officer carrying out an investigation or inspection may enter any place or building and may, without a search warrant -

Securities Commission

- (a) inspect and make copies of or take extracts from any book, minutes, register or document; and
- (b) where he has reason to believe that an offence has been committed against a securities law, search for, seize, take possession of and detain any object, article, material, thing, account, book or other document, including any travel or other personal document, which may be used as evidence.

(2) An Investigating Officer may search any person whom he has reason to believe, has any object, article, material, thing, property, book, minute book, account, register, electronic storing device, or other documents including any travel or other personal documents necessary, for the purpose of investigating an offence under any securities laws or any other law that deals with securities.

(3) An Investigating Officer making a search of a person under Subsection (1) or (2), may seize, take possession of and detain any object, article, material, thing, property, book, minute book, account, register, electronic storing device, or other documents including any travel or other personal documents found upon such person for the purpose of investigations being carried out by him.

(4) An Investigating Officer may, by notice in writing, require any person to produce to him such article, material, thing, property, book, minute book, account, register, electronic storing device, or other documents including any travel or other personal documents as are in the custody or under the control of that person.

(5) An Investigating Officer may seize, take possession of and detain, for such duration as he deems necessary, any object, article, material, thing, property, book, minute book, account, register, electronic storing device, or other documents including any travel or other personal documents produce as required under Subsection (4).

(6) A person who -

- (a) fails to produce any such books, registers or documents as required by an Investigating Officer; or
 - (b) assaults, obstructs, hinders or delays an Investigating Officer while exercising any of the powers under this section; or
 - (c) refuses an Investigating Officer, while exercising his powers under this Part, access to any premises or part of the premises; or
 - (d) rescues or endeavours to rescue anything which has been duly seized,
- is guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding K5,000,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years, or both.

(7) An Investigating Officer may grant permission to any person to inspect any accounts, book or other documents seized and taken possession of by the Investigating Officer under Subsection (1), if such person is entitled to inspect such accounts, book or document under this Act.

(8) Subsection (1), shall not be construed as limiting or affecting any similar powers conferred on any person under any other law.

Securities Commission

57. PROCEDURE BY INVESTIGATING OFFICER ON SEIZURE OF PROPERTY.

(1) A list of all things seized in the course of an investigation under Section 56, and of the place or building in which they are respectively found shall be recorded by the Investigating Officer conducting the search and signed by him.

(2) The occupant of the place or building entered under Subsection 56(1), or some other person on his behalf shall, in every instance, be permitted to attend during the inspection and a copy of the list prepared and signed under Subsection (1) shall be delivered to the occupant or other person at his request.

(3) An Investigating Officer shall, unless otherwise ordered by any court, on the close of investigations or any proceedings arising from the investigation, release any property seized, detained or removed by him or any other Investigating Officer, to such person as he determines to be lawfully entitled to the property, if he is satisfied that it is not required for the purpose of any prosecution or proceedings under any securities law, or for the purpose of any prosecution under any other law.

(4) A record, in writing, shall be made by the Investigating Officer who releases any property under Subsection (3), in respect of such release specifying the circumstances of, and the reason for, such release.

(5) Where the Investigating Officer is unable to determine the person who is lawfully entitled to the property or where there is more than one claimant to such property, the Investigating Officer shall report the matter to a Magistrate who shall then order that the property be dealt with as provided for in Section 58.

(6) For the purpose of this section and of Sections 58 and 59, "property" includes books and other documents.

58. PROCEDURE BY MAGISTRATE IN RESPECT OF PROPERTY SEIZED.

(1) Where a report is forwarded to the Magistrate by an Investigating Officer under Section 57(5), the Magistrate shall make such order as he thinks fit respecting the delivery of such property to the person entitled to the possession of the property or, if such persons cannot be ascertained, respecting the custody and production of such property.

(2) Where the person entitled to the property is known, the Magistrate may order the property to be delivered to him on such conditions, if any, as the Magistrate thinks fit, and shall, if he makes such order, cause a notice to be served on such person informing the person of the terms of the order and requiring him to take delivery of the property within such period from the date of the service of the notice as the Magistrate may prescribe in such notice.

(3) Where the person to whom the property has been ordered to be delivered under Subsection (2), neglects or refuses to take delivery of such property within the period prescribed, the Magistrate may, where such property is subject to speedy and natural decay or where in his opinion its value is less than K1,000.00, direct that such property be sold and the net proceeds of such sale shall, on demand, be paid over to the person who is entitled to the property.

Securities Commission

(4) Where the person entitled to the possession of such property is absent from the jurisdiction, and the property is subject to speedy and natural decay or the Magistrate to whom its seizure is reported is of the opinion that its sale would be for the benefit of the owner or that the value of such property is less than K1,000.00, the Magistrate may, at any time, direct it to be sold and Section 59(4), shall apply to the net proceeds of such sale.

(5) Where the person entitled to the property is unknown, the Magistrate may direct that the property be detained in the custody of the Commission.

(6) Notwithstanding Subsection (5), if the person entitled to the property is unknown and it is shown to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that -

(a) such property is of no appreciable value, or that its value is so small as, in the opinion of the Magistrate to render impracticable the sale, as provided in Section 59; or

(b) the detention of such property in the custody of the Investigating Officer is unreasonable in view of the expense or inconvenience that would be involved, the Magistrate may order that such property be destroyed or otherwise disposed of, either on the expiration of such period after the publication of the notification referred to in Section 59(1), as he may determine or forthwith as he thinks fit.

59. PROCEDURE IN RESPECT OF PROPERTY DETAINED IN INVESTIGATING OFFICER'S CUSTODY.

(1) Where a Magistrate has directed under Section 58(5), that any property seized be detained in the custody of the Commission, the Chairman shall issue a public notification specifying the articles of which the property consists and requiring any person who has any claim to make such a claim within six months from the date of such public notification.

(2) Every notification under Subsection (1) shall, if the property has a value of K1,000.00 or more, be published in the National Gazette.

(3) If, within three months from the publication of a notification under Subsection (1), no person establishes a claim to such property, and if the person in whose possession such property was found is unable to show that it was legally acquired by him, such property may, after the expiration of three months, pass to and vest in the Commission.

(4) If, within six months from the publication of such notification under Subsection (1), no person has established a claim to such property, the ownership of such property or, if sold, the net proceeds of such sale shall, upon the expiration of such period of six months, pass to and become vested in the Commission.

(5) Where the property referred to in Subsection (1), is subject to speedy and natural decay or the Commission is of the opinion that its value is less than K1,000.00, or where its custody involves unreasonable expense and inconvenience, such property may be sold at any time, and Subsections (1), (2), (3) and (4) shall, as nearly as may be practicable, apply to the net proceeds of such sale as they apply to the property.

Securities Commission

60. SURRENDER OF TRAVEL DOCUMENTS.

(1) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, if an Investigating Officer has reason to believe that a person, who is the subject of an investigation in respect of an offence under a securities law suspected to have been committed by such person, is likely to leave this jurisdiction, the Investigating Officer, with the approval of the Commission, may by written notice require such person to surrender his passport, work permit, resident visa or any other travel document in his possession.

(2) A notice under Subsection (1) may be served personally on the person to whom it is addressed.

(3) A person on whom a notice under Subsection (1) is served shall comply with such notice forthwith, failing which, he may be arrested and taken before a Magistrate.

(4) Where a person is taken before a Magistrate under Subsection (3), the Magistrate shall, unless such a person complies with the notice under Subsection (1), or satisfies the Magistrate that he does not possess a travel document, by warrant, commit him to prison -

(a) until the expiry of the period of 14 days from the date of his committal; or

(b) until he complies with the notice under Subsection (1), whichever occurs earlier.

(5) No legal proceedings shall be instituted or maintained against the State, an officer of the Commission, a public officer or any other person in respect of anything lawfully done under this section.

61. SEARCH WARRANT.

(1) A Magistrate may issue a warrant authorising a member of the Royal Papua New Guinea Constabulary, whether or not named in the warrant, together with the Investigating Officer, with such assistance, and by such force, as is necessary and reasonable -

(a) to enter on or into the premises; and

(b) to search the premises; and

(c) to break open and search anything, whether a fixture or not, in or on the premises; and

(d) to take possession of, or secure against interference, books that appear to be any or all of those books.

(2) A warrant under this section must -

(a) specify the premises and books referred to in Subsection (1); and

(b) state whether entry is authorised to be made at any time of the day or night or only during specified hours; and

(c) state that the warrant ceases to have effect on a specified day that is not more than 14 days after the day of issue of the warrant.

Securities Commission

62. FORCEFUL ENTRY WITHOUT A WARRANT.

(1) The Investigating Officer or a person authorised by the Commission in writing may forcefully enter a premise without a search warrant and seize any particular documents, books, papers, files, electronic devices, computers and other electronic devices used for storage and production of information or any data that may be necessary or desirable for the Commission to obtain for or in connection with the performance of its functions.

- (2) The Commission may only apply Subsection (1), in the event that -
- (a) there is a real possibility that the person would conceal the information before the Commission search the premises with a warrant; or
 - (b) the person is likely to leave Papua New Guinea with the documents, books, papers, files, electronic devices, computers and other electronic devices used for storage and production of information or any data that the Commission may require in connection with the performance of its functions; or
 - (c) the person has not been complying with lawful directives of the Commission to provide to the Commission, documents, books, papers, files, electronic devices, computers and other electronic devices used for storage and production of information or any data in his possession.

(3) The Investigating Officer, with the assistance of the Police, may, without a warrant, detain a person or persons in a police lock up facility, whom the Commission thinks would conceal any documents, books, papers, files, electronic devices, computers and other electronic devices used for storage and production of information or any data that the Commission may require in connection with the performance of its functions.

(4) The Commission may detain the person under Subsection (3), without bail and without laying of any charges for not more than 48 hours before releasing him.

(5) Whilst the person or persons under Subsection (3) are detained, the Investigating Officer may enter the premises of the person or persons without any warrant and seize any documents, books, papers, files, electronic devices, computers and other electronic devices used for storage and production of information or any data that the Commission may require in connection with the performance of its functions.

63. DESTRUCTION, CONCEALMENT, MUTILATION AND ALTERATION OF RECORDS.

Any person who -

- (a) destroys, conceals, mutilates or alters; or
- (b) sends or attempts to send or conspires with any other person to remove from his premises or send out of the country, any record or account in his possession that is required to be produced under this Part with intent to defraud any person, or to prevent, delay or obstruct the carrying out of an examination, audit or investigation, or the exercise of any power under this Act, is liable to a fine not exceeding K10,000,000.00 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years, or both.

Securities Commission

64. THE COMMISSION MAY NOT GIVE A COPY OF BOOK RELATING TO A REGISTERED SCHEME TO ANOTHER PERSON.

(1) The Commission may not give to a person or a statutory organisation a copy of any book in its possession that relates to a registered securities scheme, unless that person or organisation requires the information for the purposes of an investigation.

(2) If a copy of a book is given to a person under Subsection (1), subject to conditions, the person, and any other person who has possession, custody or control of the copy or a copy of the book, must comply with the conditions.

65. REPORT ON INVESTIGATION.

(1) At the end of an investigation, the Commission shall prepare a final report about the investigation.

(2) A report under this section shall set out -

- (a) the Commission's findings about the matters investigated; and
- (b) the evidence and other material on which those findings are based; and
- (c) such other matters relating to, or arising out of, the investigation as the Commission thinks fit.

(3) Where a report or part of a report under this Division relates to a serious breach or contravention of any other laws, the Commission may give a copy of the report to -

- (a) the Royal Papua New Guinea Constabulary; or
- (b) the Public Prosecutor; or
- (c) the Internal Revenue Commission; or
- (d) the Papua New Guinea Customs Service; or
- (e) the Ombudsman Commission of Papua New Guinea; or
- (f) another law enforcement agency of the State.

(4) No report or an extract of the report shall be distributed or published except in exceptional circumstances where the Commission sees justifiable to do so.

(5) The Commission may use the information gathered in the investigations to -

- (a) prosecute persons who have breached any provisions of the securities law; or
- (b) file civil proceedings under this Act, the Capital Market Act 2015 or the Central Depositories Act 2015, as the case may be.

Division 2. - Examination.

66. POWER TO CALL FOR EXAMINATION.

(1) Where the Commission, under any securities law, suspects or believes on reasonable grounds that a person can give information that is relevant to a matter that the Commission is investigating, the Commission may, by notice in writing to such person, require such person -

- (a) to give to the Commission all reasonable assistance in connection with the investigation; and

Securities Commission

(b) to appear before the Commission to be examined orally.

(2) The Commission, when exercising its authority under Subsection (1)(b), shall reduce into writing any statement made by the person examined under Subsection (1).

(3) A person referred to in Subsection (1), is legally bound to answer all questions put to him by the Commission and to state the truth, whether or not the statement is made wholly or partly in answer to questions, and shall not refuse to answer any question on the ground that it tends to incriminate him.

(4) A statement made by a person under this section shall be taken down in writing and signed by the person making it or affixed with his thumb print, as the case may be, after it has been read to him and after he had been given an opportunity to make any correction.

(5) Where the person examined refuses to sign or affix his thumb print on the statement, the Investigating Officer shall endorse the statement under his hand and state the fact of such refusal and the reason for refusal, if any, stated by the person examined.

(6) A statement made and recorded under this section is admissible as evidence in any Court proceeding.

(7) Any person who -

- (a) fails to appear before the Commission as required under Subsection (1); or
- (b) refuses to answer any question put to him by the Commission as required under Subsection (3); or
- (c) knowingly furnishes to the Commission information or a statement that is false or misleading in any material particular, is guilty of an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding K2,000,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years, or both.

67. EXAMINATION OF LICENSED PERSONS.

(1) The Commission may, from time to time, examine without any prior notice, the books or other documents, accounts and transactions of a licensed person.

(2) For the purposes of this section "licensed person" means -

- (a) a holder of a Capital Market License issued under Section 36 of the Capital Market Act 2015; and
- (b) a central depository, an authorised depository agent or an authorised nominee as defined in the Central Depositories Act 2015.

68. PRODUCTION OF LICENSED PERSONS' BOOKS.

(1) For the purposes of an examination under Section 67, the licensed person under examination and its directors and officers shall accord any person carrying out the examination, access to all its books or other documents and accounts, including documents of title to its assets, all securities held by it in respect of securities transactions, all its cash, and to all such documents, information and facilities as may be required by that person for the purpose of the examination, and shall produce to that person all such books or other documents, accounts, titles, securities or cash and give all such information, as he may require.

Securities Commission

(2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), any person authorised by the Commission in writing for this purpose may, take possession of any books or other documents, accounts, titles, securities or cash to which he has access under Subsection (1), if in his opinion -

- (a) the inspection of them, the copying of them, or the taking of extracts from them, cannot reasonably be undertaken without taking possession of them; or
- (b) they may be interfered with or destroyed unless he takes possession of them; or
- (c) they may be needed as evidence in any legal proceedings, whether civil or criminal, which may be instituted under or in connection with any securities law or any other law.

(3) A person or a licensed person or a director or officer of the licensed person who fails to -

- (a) allow access to, give possession or produce its books or other documents, accounts, titles, securities or cash; or
- (b) give information or facilities, in accordance with Subsections (1), and (2); or
- (c) assist the person who is conducting the examination,

Penalty: A fine not exceeding K5,000,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years, or both.

69. EXAMINATION TO TAKE PLACE IN PRIVATE.

(1) The examination shall take place in private and the Commission may give directions about who may be present during an examination, or during a part of it.

- (2) No other person shall be present at the examination unless he or she -
- (a) is the examiner, the examinee or a member of the Commission; or
 - (b) a staff member of the Commission; or
 - (c) is entitled to be present by virtue of -
 - (i) a direction under Subsection (1); or
 - (ii) being the lawyer of the examinee.

(3) A person who willfully refuses to comply with this section is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: A fine of not exceeding K500,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or both.

Default Penalty: K1,000.00 every day.

70. EXAMINEE'S LAWYERS MAY ATTEND.

(1) The examinee's lawyer may be present at the examination and may, at such times during the examination as the Commission or its examiner determines -

- (a) address the examiner; or
- (b) examine the examinee,

about matters which the examiner has examined.

(2) If, in the examiner's opinion, a person is trying to obstruct the examination by exercising rights under Subsection (1), the examiner may require the person to stop addressing the examiner, or examining the examinee, as the case requires.

Securities Commission

71. APPLICATION OF EVIDENCE FROM THE RECORD.

(1) The Commission may use the evidence obtained in the examination to file civil proceedings under Section 84 or 101.

(2) A person, other than the Commission, who uses the content of the report to question or otherwise attack the personal credibility of the person who is the subject of the examination, before the Commission finding any guilt of the examinee, is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: A fine not exceeding K10,000,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years, or both.

Default Penalty: K5,000.00 every day.

Division 3. - Inquiries.

72. POWER TO CONDUCT INQUIRY.

(1) The Commission may conduct inquiries for the purposes of the performance of any of its powers and functions, under this Act or any other law, if the Commission considers an inquiry is necessary or desirable for the purposes of carrying out its regulatory functions.

(2) Nothing in this Division prevents the Commission from seeking the assistance of the National Government to convene an inquiry under the Commission of Inquiry Act 1951, if the issues for the inquiry also cover issues other than that of the capital markets.

73. NOTICE OF INQUIRY.

(1) The Commission may publish a notice of an inquiry in the National Gazette and a daily newspaper circulating generally in the country.

(2) A notice under Subsection (1), shall specify -

(a) the purpose of the inquiry; and

(b) the period during which the inquiry is to be held; and

(c) the period within which, and the form in which members of the public may make submissions, including details of public hearings; and

(d) the matters that the Commission would like submissions to deal with.

(3) The Commission may publish the terms of reference of any inquiry in the National Gazette.

74. GENERAL DISCRETION TO CONDUCT INQUIRIES IN PUBLIC OR PRIVATE.

(1) The Commission may direct that an inquiry into a matter takes place in public or in private.

(2) In exercising its discretion under Subsection (1), the Commission shall have regard to -

(a) whether evidence that may be given, or a matter that may arise, during the hearing is of a confidential nature or relates to the commission, or to the alleged or suspected commission, of an offence; and

Securities Commission

- (b) any unfair prejudice to a person's reputation that would be likely to be caused if the hearing took place in public; and
- (c) whether it is in the public interest that the hearing take place in public; and
- (d) any other relevant matter.

75. THE COMMISSION MAY RESTRICT PUBLICATION OF CERTAIN MATERIAL.

(1) Where, at a hearing that is taking place in public or in private, the Commission is satisfied that it is desirable to do so, the Commission may give directions preventing or restricting the publication of evidence given before the Commission, or of matters contained in documents lodged with the Commission.

(2) In determining whether or not to give a direction under Subsection (1), the Commission shall have regard to -

- (a) whether evidence that has been or may be given, or a matter that has arisen or may arise, during the hearing, is of a confidential nature or relates to the Commission, or to the alleged or suspected commission, of an offence against any other Acts of Parliament; and
- (b) any unfair prejudice to a person's reputation that would be likely to be caused unless the Commission exercises its powers under this section; and
- (c) whether it is in the public interest that the Commission exercises its powers under this section; and
- (d) any other relevant matter.

76. WHO MAY BE PRESENT WHEN AN INQUIRY TAKES PLACE IN PRIVATE.

(1) The Commission may give directions as to who may be present during a hearing or an inquiry that is to take place in private.

(2) A direction under Subsection (1), does not prevent a lawyer who represents an interested person or party in the hearing from appearing before the Commission during the hearing.

(3) Where the Commission directs that a hearing take place in private, a person shall not be present at the hearing unless he or she -

- (a) is a member of the Commission; or
- (b) is a staff member approved by the Commission; or
- (c) is entitled to be present by virtue of -
 - (i) a direction under Subsection (1); or
 - (ii) the party interested in the inquiry.

Penalty: A fine not exceeding K500,000.00 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or both.

77. INVOLVEMENT OF A PERSON ENTITLED TO APPEAR AT A HEARING.

(1) The Commission shall appoint a place and time for the inquiry and cause written notice of that place and time to be given to a person who is entitled to be at a hearing.

Securities Commission

(2) If the person does not wish to appear at the hearing, the person may, before the day of the hearing, lodge with the Commission any written submissions that the person wishes the Commission to take into account in relation to the matter concerned.

(3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), a person who is issued with a summons under Section 78 to give evidence shall appear before the Commission, until he is discharged by the Commission.

78. POWER TO SUMMON WITNESSES AND TAKE EVIDENCE.

(1) The Commission may, by written summons in the prescribed form given to a person -

- (a) require the person to appear before the Commission at a hearing to give evidence, to produce specified documents or to do both; and
- (b) require the person to attend from day to day unless excused, or released from further attendance, by the Commission.

(2) At a hearing, the Commission may take evidence on oath or affirmation, and for that purpose the Commission may -

- (a) require a witness at the hearing to either take an oath or make an affirmation; and
- (b) administer an oath or affirmation to a witness at the hearing.

(3) The oath or affirmation to be taken or made by a person for the purposes of this section, is an oath or affirmation that the evidence the person will give will be true.

(4) The member presiding at a hearing -

- (a) may require a witness at the hearing to answer a question put to the witness; and
- (b) may require a person appearing at the hearing pursuant to a summons issued under this section to produce a document specified in the summons.

(5) The Commission may permit a witness at a hearing to give evidence by tendering, and if the Commission so requires, verifying by oath, a written statement.

79. PROCEEDINGS AT HEARINGS.

(1) A hearing shall be conducted with as little formality and technicality and with as much expedition, as the requirements of this Act and a proper consideration of the matters before the Commission permits.

(2) At a hearing, the Commission -

- (a) is not bound by the rules of evidence; and
- (b) may, on such conditions as it thinks fit, permit a person to intervene; and
- (c) must observe the rules of natural justice.

(3) At a hearing before the Commission, one member of the Commission may preside over the inquiry.

(4) At a hearing, a natural person may appear in person or with a lawyer of his choice.

Securities Commission

(5) A body corporate may be represented at a hearing by an officer or employee of the body corporate or by its lawyers.

(6) An unincorporated association, or a person in his capacity as a member of an unincorporated association may be represented at a hearing by a member, officer or employee of the association or by its lawyer.

80. REFERENCE TO COURT OF QUESTION OF LAW ARISING AT HEARING.

(1) The Commission may, on its own motion or at a person's request, refer to the Court for a decision relating to a question of law arising at a hearing.

(2) Where a question has been referred under Subsection (1), the Commission shall not, in relation to a matter to which the hearing relates -

- (a) give a ruling or determination while the reference is pending a decision to which the question is relevant; or
- (b) proceed in a manner, or make a decision, that is inconsistent with the Court's opinion on the question.

(3) Where a question is referred under Subsection (1) -

- (a) the Commission shall send to the Court all documents that were before the Commission in connection with the hearing; and
- (b) at the end of the proceeding in the Court in relation to the reference, the Court shall cause the documents to be returned to the Commission.

81. PROTECTION OF MEMBERS.

(1) A member has, in the performance or exercise of any of his or her functions and powers as a member in relation to a hearing, the same protection and immunity as a Justice of the National Court.

(2) A delegate of a member has, in the performance or exercise of any delegated function or power in relation to a hearing, the same protection and immunity as a Justice of the National Court.

(3) A lawyer or other person appearing on a person's behalf at a hearing has the same protection and immunity as a lawyer has in appearing for a party in a proceeding in the National Court.

(4) Subject to this Act, a person who is required by a summons under Section 78 to appear at a hearing, or a witness at a hearing, has the same protection as a witness in a proceeding in the National Court.

82. REPORTS.

(1) The Commission shall deliver a copy of the final report on the inquiry to the Minister.

(2) The Minister shall table the report in next session of Parliament after the release of the report by the Commission.

Securities Commission

(3) The Commission shall identify in a report any information contained in the report that the Commission considers is confidential information.

(4) If information is excluded from a report as being confidential information, a note to that effect shall be included in the report at the place in the report from which the information is excluded.

Division 4. - Proceedings after an investigation.

83. THE COMMISSION MAY CAUSE PROSECUTION TO BEGIN.

(1) This section applies where -

- (a) as a result of an investigation; or
- (b) from a record of an examination; or
- (c) from the findings of an inquiry conducted under this Part,

it appears to the Commission that a person, may have committed an offence against this Act or the Regulation and ought to be prosecuted for the offence.

(2) The Commission may cause a prosecution of the person for the offence to begin and carried on under Section 102.

(3) Where -

- (a) the Commission, on reasonable grounds, suspects or believes that a person can give information relevant to a prosecution for the offence; or
- (b) the offence relates to matters being, or connected with, the affairs of a body corporate, or to matters including such matters, the Commission may, whether before or after a prosecution for the offence is begun, by writing given to the person, or to an eligible person in relation to the body, as the case may be, require the person or eligible person to give all reasonable assistance in connection with such a prosecution.

(4) Subsection (3), does not apply in relation to -

- (a) the person referred to in Subsection (1); or
- (b) a person who is or has been that person's lawyer.

84. THE COMMISSION MAY CAUSE CIVIL PROCEEDINGS TO BEGIN.

Where, as a result of an investigation or from a record of an examination being an investigation or examination conducted under this Part, it appears to the Commission to be in the public interest for a person to be prosecuted for -

- (a) the recovery of damages for fraud, negligence, default, breach of duty, or other misconduct, committed in connection with a matter to which the investigation or examination is related; or
- (b) recovery of property of the person,

the Commission may, with the person's written consent, cause such a proceeding to begin and be carried on in the person's name.

Securities Commission

Division 5. - Evidentiary use of certain material.

85. STATEMENTS MADE AT AN EXAMINATION: PROCEEDINGS AGAINST EXAMINEE.

(1) A statement that a person makes during an examination under Division 2 of this Part is admissible in evidence against the person in a proceeding unless -

- (a) the statement is not admissible in evidence against the person in the proceeding; or
- (b) the statement is not relevant to the proceeding and the person objects to the admission of evidence of the statement; or
- (c) the statement is qualified or explained by some other statement made at the examination, evidence of the other statement is not tendered in the proceeding and the person objects to the admission of evidence of the first-mentioned statement; or
- (d) the statement discloses a matter in respect of which the person could claim legal professional privilege in the proceeding if this subsection did not apply in relation to the statement, and the person objects to the admission of evidence of the statement.

(2) Subsection (1), applies in relation to a proceeding against a person even if it is heard together with a proceeding against another person.

(3) Where a written record of an examination of a person is signed by the person under Subsection (2), or authenticated in any other prescribed manner, the record is, in a proceeding, prima facie evidence of the statements it recorded, but nothing in this Part limits or affects the admissibility, in the proceeding of other evidence, of statements made at the examination.

86. STATEMENTS MADE AT AN EXAMINATION: OTHER PROCEEDINGS.

Where direct evidence by a person (the absent witness) of a matter would be admissible in a proceeding, a statement made by the person during his examination which establishes the matter, is admissible in the proceeding as evidence of that matter -

- (a) if it appears to the Court or tribunal that -
 - (i) the absent witness is dead or is unfit, because of physical or mental incapacity, to attend as a witness; or
 - (ii) the absent witness is outside the country and it is not reasonably practicable to secure his attendance; or
 - (iii) all reasonable steps have been taken to find the absent witness but he cannot be found; or

(b) if it does not so appear to the Court or tribunal, unless another party to the proceeding requires the party tendering evidence of the statement to call the absent witness as a witness in the proceeding and the tendering party does not so call the absent witness.

87. WEIGHT OF EVIDENCE ADMITTED UNDER SECTIONS 66 AND 69.

(1) This section applies where evidence of a statement made by a person at an examination of the person under Section 66 or 69 is admitted in a proceeding.

Securities Commission

(2) In deciding how much weight (if any) to give to the statement as evidence of a matter, regard is given to -

- (a) how long after the matters to which it relates to the statement was made; and
- (b) any reason the person may have had for concealing or misrepresenting a material matter; and
- (c) any other circumstances from which it is reasonable to draw an inference about how accurate the statement is.

(3) Where the person is not called as a witness in the proceeding -

- (a) evidence that would, if the person had been so called, have been admissible in the proceeding for the purpose of destroying or supporting his credibility is so admissible; and
- (b) evidence is admissible to show that the statement is inconsistent with another statement that the person has made at any time.

88. OBJECTION TO ADMISSION OF STATEMENTS MADE AT EXAMINATION.

(1) A party (the adducing party) to a proceeding may, not less than 14 days before the first day of the hearing of the proceeding, give to another party to the proceeding written notice that the adducing party -

- (a) will apply to have admitted in evidence in the proceeding specified statements made at an examination; and
- (b) for that purpose, will apply to have evidence of those statements admitted in the proceeding.

(2) A notice under Subsection (1), shall set out, or be accompanied by writing that sets out, the specified statements.

(3) Within 14 days after a notice is given under Subsection (1), the other party may give to the adducing party a written notice -

- (a) stating that the other party objects to specified statements being admitted in evidence in the proceeding; and
- (b) specifies, in relation to each of those statements, the grounds of objection.

(4) The period prescribed by Subsection (3), may be extended by the court or tribunal or by agreement between the parties concerned.

(5) On receiving a notice given under Subsection (3), the adducing party shall give to the court or tribunal a copy of -

- (a) the notice under Subsection (1), and any writing that Subsection (2), required to accompany that notice; and
- (b) the notice under Subsection (3).

(6) Where Subsection (5), is complied with, the court or tribunal may either -

- (a) determine the objections as a preliminary point before the hearing of the proceeding begins; or
- (b) defer determination of the objections until the hearing.

Securities Commission

(7) Where a notice has been given in accordance with Subsections (1) and (2), the other party is not entitled to object at the hearing of the proceeding to a statement specified in the notice being admitted in evidence in the proceeding, unless -

- (a) the other party has, in accordance with Subsection (3), objected to the statement being so admitted; or
- (b) the court or tribunal gives the other party leave to object to the statement being so admitted.

89. EXCEPTIONS TO ADMISSIBILITY OF REPORT.

(1) This section applies where a party to a proceeding tenders a copy of a report as evidence against another party.

(2) In a proceeding, a copy of a report is not admissible under Section 87 as evidence against the other party, unless the Court or tribunal is satisfied that -

- (a) a copy of the report has been given to the other party; and
- (b) the other party and his lawyer have had a reasonable opportunity to examine that copy and has taken its contents into account in preparing their case.

(3) Before or after the copy referred to in Subsection (1), is admitted in evidence, the other party may apply to cross-examine, in relation to the report, a specified person who, or two or more specified persons each of whom -

- (a) was concerned in preparing the report or making a finding about a fact or matter that the report states the Commission to have found to exist; or
- (b) whether or not pursuant to a requirement made under this Part, gave information, or produced a book, on the basis of which, or on the basis of matters including which, such a finding was made.

(4) The Court or tribunal may grant an application made under Subsection (3), unless it considers that, in all the circumstances, it is not appropriate to do so.

(5) Where -

- (a) the Court or tribunal grants an application or applications made under Subsection (3); and
- (b) a person to whom the application or any of the applications relate, or two or more such persons, is or are unavailable, or does not or do not attend, to be cross-examined in relation to the report; and
- (c) the Court or tribunal is of the opinion that to admit the copy under Subsection (3), in the proceeding as evidence against the other party without the other party having the opportunity so to cross-examine the person or persons would unfairly prejudice the other party, the Court or tribunal shall refuse so to admit the copy, or shall treat the copy as not having been so admitted, as the case requires.

90. MATERIAL OTHERWISE ADMISSIBLE.

Nothing in this Division renders evidence inadmissible in a proceeding in circumstances where it would have been admissible in that proceeding if this Division had not been enacted.

Securities Commission

Division 6. - Miscellaneous.
