

REGIONAL CAPACITY DEVELOPMENT TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE STRENGHTENING CAPACITY FOR ENVIRONMENTAL LAW IN THE ASIA-PACIFIC: DEVELOPING ENVIRONMENTAL LAW CHAMPIONS TRAIN-THE-TRAINERS PROGRAM

19 - 23 June 2017 Chiang Mai, Thailand

Day 1 19 June 2017
TIME	ACTIVITY	PRESENTER(S)/CONVENOR
1. OPEN	IING CEREMONY + INTRODUCTION TO THE COURSE
8:30 – 9:00	Opening ceremony Speeches by representatives of ADB, IUCNAEL and host institution (Chiang Mai University Law School) Group photo	ADB Speaker – Sonia Chand Sandhu Senior Advisor to Vice-President Knowledge Management and Sustainable Development, ADB
		IUCNAEL Speaker – Professor Rob Fowler, former Chair of IUCN Academy of Environmental Law and Team Leader, TTT Program
		Assistant Professor Dr. Porncha Wisuttisak, Dean, Chiang Ma University Law School (TBC)
9:00 – 9:05	Short break
9:05 – 10:00	Introduction of international trainers & IUCNAEL Project Manager Introduction of trainers (local) Introduction of participants	Rob Fowler, IUCNAEL Team Leader Chacrit Sitdhiwej Chacrit Sitdhiwej
10:00 – 10:30	Introduction to the course: Explanation of:	Rob Fowler
10.30 – 11.00	Tea Break
2A. BUILI	DING ENVIRONMENTAL LAW CHAMPIONS
11:00 – 11:20	 Presentation related to identification of inspirational leaders in environmental law + video film (re the late Seub Nakasatun) (20 mins.) 	Chacrit Sitdhiwej + Rob Fowler
2B. GLOE	BAL & REGIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES	I
11:20 – 11:45	 Introductory presentation on GEO-6 report (global and Asian perspectives) (15 mins.) Presentation on GMS perspective and ADB's Green Initiatives (10 mins.) 	Lye Lin Heng Sonia Chand Sandhu, ADB

11:45 – 12:30	Participants divided into 5 groups (to identify 3 key national environmental issues (20 mins.)	Local trainers
	Each group to select 1 person for a 3 minute report back to the class (15 mins) Class debrief (10 mins)	Arisara Lekkham
12.30 – 1.30	Lunch
3 INTR	ODUCTION TO ENVIRONMENTAL LAW : GOALS, PRINCIPLES 8	NORMS
1.30 – 2.10	Participants to be divided into groups of 5 to draft legislative definition of "environment (15 mins.) Each group to write-up their definition (5 mins.) Class feed-back/discussion on definitions (10 mins.) Presentation of definitions in relevant environmental laws	Local trainers to assist small groups Lye lin Heng
2:10 – 2:40	(10 mins.) Presentation: Introduction to Environmental Law Goals: Sustainable Development & the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) Core principles of environmental law (directing and design) Norms of environmental law: general rights and duties Core components of environmental law (introduction to Sessions 4-8) Relationship of environmental law to other disciplines (science, economics, ethics, philosophy and religion) Challenges in teaching environmental law to non-law students	Rob Fowler
2:40 - 3:00	Participants to divide into 5 groups for a free form discussion with local trainers on how SDG's may be implemented in Thailand	Local trainers
3.00 – 3 .30	Tea Break
4. ENVI	RONMENTAL (SPATIAL) PLANNING AND ENVIRONMENTAL IN	лраст assessment (eia) law
3.30 - 4:00	Presentation: Overview of environmental (spatial) planning and EIA law Planning law (history, policy, development control, appeals, other measures) EIA law (history, scope, procedures, public participation, mandate, judicial oversight, strategic EIA) Q & A (5 mins.)	Natasha Affolder
4:00 - 4:30	Participants to divide into 5 groups for discussion with local trainers re relevance of presentation to Thailand's environmental law	Local trainers
4.30 – 4.45	Report back by local trainers on discussions within groups
4:45 - 5:15	Case-study: examination of contested development proposal in Thailand involving a judicial decision: Rajatewa sewerage treatment project (20mins presentation + 10 mins Q &A)	Nuthamon Kongcharoen

Day 2	20 June 2017
TIME	ACTIVITY	PRESENTER
5 ENV	5 ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION LAW
9:00 – 9:30	Presentation on environmental protection law General v specific environment protection laws National – v sub-national laws Scope of environmental protection law Institutional arrangements Tools: standards, approvals, licences, orders Enforcement mechanisms Q & A (5 mins.)	Rob Fowler
9:30 – 9:50	Participants to divide into 5 groups for discussion with local trainers re relevance of presentation to Thailand's environmental law	Local trainers
9.50-10.05	Report back by local trainers on discussions within groups
10. 05 – 10:45	Tutorial exercise (participants to be allocated to 3 groups with local trainer to lead tutorial discussion; international trainers to observe and contribute as appropriate)	Namphon Limpajate to introduce All trainers
10.45 – 11.00	Tea Break
6. PRC	6. PROTECTION OF BIODIVERSITY / NATURAL AND CULTURAL HERITAGE
11:00 - 11:30	Presentation: Concept of biodiversity and mechanisms for its protection (protected areas, species listings, regulation of trade etc) concepts of natural and cultural heritage and links between them; purpose of natural and cultural heritage laws and mechanisms employed to achieve these purposes Q & A (5 mins.)	Lye lin Heng
11:30 - 11:45	Participants to divide into 5 groups for discussion with local trainers re relevance of presentation to Thailand's environmental law	Local trainers
11.45-12.00	Report back by selectd participant from each group
12:00 – 12.15	Short film on iconic cultural heritage sites in Thailand (10 mins.) + debrief on film (5 mins.)	Chacrit Sitdhiwej
12.15 – 12:30	"Free form" class discussion: "what in your country is worth protecting in terms of its natural/cultural heritage, why, and how?"	Chacrit Sitdhiwej
12.30 – 1.30	Lunch
7. NAT	TURAL RESOURCES MANAGEMENT LAW	I
1.30 - 1.50	Presentation: Overview of natural resources management law:	Rob Fowler

	 Nature of "dominant" title to natural resources Mechanisms for allocation of rights to natural resources (permits, licences, title, etc.) Integrated natural resources management
	 Overview of relevant national measures Land (including indigenous land rights) Water Forests
	Minerals and petroleumFisheries
	Q & A (5 mins.)
1.50 – 2:10	Participants to divide into 5 groups for discussion with local trainers re relevance of presentation to Thailand's environmental law	Local trainers
2.10 – 2.30	Report back by selected participant form each group
2:30 – 3:15	Role play (part 1): re offshore oil pollution incident • Describe nature of role-play exercise and allocate participants to small groups – 5 - 6 persons/role + identify two participants as co-mediators (10 mins.) • Small groups to work on their contribution to the role-play	Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen
	(with local trainer in each group) (35 mins.)	Local trainers
3.15 – 3.45	Tea Break
8. CLIM	IATE CHANGE/CLEAN ENERGY LAW
3.45 – 4.15	Presentation: the science of climate change (causes, impacts) international mitigation measures (including Paris Agreeement) Use of REDD and flexible mechanisms INDcs and domestic mitigation measures (carbon tax, emissions trading schemes, clean energy legislation etc.) Adaptation measures	Natasha Affolder
	Q & A (5mins.)
4.15 – 5.05	Guided brainstorming exercise (full class) participants to address the question of how climate change and clean energy law can best be incorporated in an environmental law course in Thailand (with 3 participants to facilitate the discussion)	Namphon Limpajate to lead (with 2-3 participants as discussion facilitators)
5.05 – 5.15	Feed-back session: participant facilitators to reflect on their efforts class to give constructive feed-back to facilitators feed-back by trainer to class and facilitators participants to reflect on feed-back session (reflective journal)	Natasha Affolder + Namphon Limpajate
5.15 – 5.30	Distribution of MEA research exercise (5 small groups to be assigned a particular MEA each – CITES, CBD, UNFCCC, World Heritage Convention & Biodiversity Convention): • When did Thailand sign/ratify the particular MEA? • What implementing legislation has been adopted? • What are the administrative arrangements for this legislation? • What are the key measures in the implementing legislation? [Groups to present their "assignment" in full class in Session 11]	Natasha Affolder

Day 3	21 June 2017
TIME	ACTIVITY	PRESENTER
9. ENVI	RONMENTAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND THE ROLE OF THE JU	JDICIARY
9:00 – 9:30	Presentation: The role of the judiciary in environmental dispute resolution	Introduction of guest presenter: Nuthamon Kongcharoen, Guest presenter: Justice Dr. Parichart Munsgool, Thailand Court of Justice (25 mins.)
9:30 – 9.50	Full class Q & A with guest presenter
9.50-10.10	Presentation: overview of environmental litigation from a comparative perspective Public interest litigation (judicial review, civil enforcement) administrative remedies and merits appeals class actions specialist environmental courts	Rob Fowler
10.10 - 10.30	Comments by guest presenter followed by Q & A	Justice Dr. Parichart Munsgool (Nuthamon Kongcharoen to moderate)
10.30 – 11.00	Tea Break
10. RIGH	TS IN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW	I
11.00 – 11.20	Presentation: • substantive and procedural rights in environmental law (using a comparative approach): - human rights and the environment - environmental constitutionalism - Arhus Convention and procedural rights - Emerging recognition of rights for nature	Lye lin Heng
11.20-11.40	Comments on presentation topic in Thailand context	Justice Dr. Parichart Munsgool + Nuthamon Kongcharoen (Chananphon Boonkerdsap to moderate)
11.40 – 11.50	Q & A re presentation and comments	Lye lin Heng
11.50 - 12.30	Presentation on role of environmental law clinics (10 mins) Three small groups for a structured discussion to answer the following question: What potential is there for an environmental law clinic in your Law School? (15 mins.)	Rob Fowler
	Feedback from each group by a selected particpant (15 min)	Chananphon Boonkerdsap to moderate
12:30 – 1.30	Lunch Break
11. INTE	RNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL LAW
1.30 – 2.10	Presentation: - International law and its relationship with IEL	Natasha Affolder

	- Sources and key concepts of IEL - Distinction between hard and soft law - Key international institutions - Summary of major MEAs - The role of the law moot as a teaching tool Q & A + discussion re mooting (15 mins.)
2:10 – 2:20	Presentation : what is the process for ratification of treaties in Thailand?	Arisara Lekkham
2.20 – 3.00	Research exercise: National implementation of MEA's: groups to present their written "assignment" in full class (5 X 6 minutes each] Class discussion (10 mins.)	Arisara to moderate
3.00 3.30	Tea Break (and final preparation for role-play)
12. ALTERN	ATIVE APPROACHES TO ENVIRONMENTAL DISPUTE RESOLUTIO	N - ROLE-PLAY EXERCISE
3:30 – 4:30	Participants to engage in various roles, as previously allocated, for purposes of conducting a simulated mediation exercise	Chananphon Boonkerdsap and two participants to act as co-mediators
4.30 – 5.00	Class discussion: • feedback on the process, including some reflections and critique of the value of mediation to resolve environmental disputes (20 mins) • Short class discussion: participants to reflect on whether and how they might incorporate a role play into an environmental law course. (10 mins)	All trainers Chananphon Boonkerdsap to moderate

Day 4	22 June 2017
TIME	ACTIVITY	PRESENTER
13. REGIC	DNAL ENVIRONMENTAL LAW
9:00 – 9.30	Presentation: ASEAN and other regional environmental law systems (25 mins)	Chacrit Sitdhiwej
	Q& A (5 mins.)
9.30-10.30	Presentation (2 X 15 mins) and class discussion (2 x 15 mins) of two case- studies on trans-boundary pollution: Timor Sea Montara oil spill Xyaburi dam (Laos/Thailand)	Rob Fowler Arisara Lekkham
10.30 - 11.00	Tea Break
14 DESIG	INING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 1) — REVIEW OF TEGIES	ACHING
11:00 – 11.10	Introduction: Designing an Environmental Law Course – Methodology Options	Natasha Affolder
11.10 – 11.40	Plenary discussion of technology-based approaches: - Use of electronic resources as a teaching tool - Comparative video-conference teaching	Lye lin Heng
11:40- 12.30	Review and discussion of teaching methodologies used in the course, including use of reflective journals maintained during the course by participants (lectures, seminars, tutorials, group work, class presentations, role-play, etc.) Discussion on lecturing skills	Local trainers to lead seminar groups
	(divide into 3 seminar groups to discuss challenges in using particular methodologies (25 mins.), report back from groups (15 mins.) then plenary seminar-style discussion (10 mins.))	Namphon Limpajate to moderate
12.30 -1.15	Lunch break and Preparation for Field Trip
15 &16 FIELD	TRIP (Wiang Kumkam heritage site) & COURSE DINNER	I
1.15 – 1:45	Field Trip Presentation: Distribution and explanation of information materials Safety/security briefing Briefing on field trip site	Nuthamon Kongcharoen Rob Fowler Professor Somchot Ongsakul, Lanna study Center, Faculty of Humanities, Chiang Mai University
1.45 - 2.15	Travel to field trip site – Wiang Kumkam heritage site
2.15 – 4.15	Field trip inspection of Wiang Kum Kam heritage site on two trolley buses
4.14 - 5.15	Return on bus to hotel
5.15 – 6.00	De-briefing session (at training venue): Discussion of legal and policy issues arising re the heritage site discussion of field trip as a teaching methodology, including rationale, logistical considerations, safety issues, and function of the de-brief	All trainers

17. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 2) - THE ROLE OF ASSESSMENT 8 REVIEW OF ASSESSMENT OPTIONS 9:00 - 9:15 Presentation: Role of assessment	Day 5	23 June 2017
Presentation: Note of assessment	TIME	ACTIVITY	PRESENTER
9:00 – 9:15 Presentations: Role of assessment			ASSESSMENT
Persentation: Assessment options Presentation: Assessment options Presentation: Assessment options: Prescriptive v consultative assessment schemes Oral vuritten assessment Examination v written assignment (including nature of examination v written assignment written) Perblem-based v essay-style questions v multiple choice questions Performance v essay-style questions v multiple choice questions Self-assessment yper-assessment Participants to be divided into five groups to discuss their preferences for assessment options (free-form, self-directed discussion) Tea Break Participants to be divided into five groups to discuss their preferences for assessment options (free-form, self-directed discussion) Tea Break Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); Use of different teaching methodologies; and assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(7) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) – PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 – 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. Persentation of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law Closing Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Carruth Person free-form discussion of course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Carruth Person free-form discussion of course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Nuth			Lye lin Heng
Presentation: Assessment options Prescriptive v Consultative assessment schemes Oral v written assessment Examination or written assessment (including nature of examination) (e.g., take home?) Closs presentations (individual ygroup assessment) Problem-based v essar-style questions v multiple choice questions Self-assessment v peer-assessment Participants to be divided into five groups to discuss their preferences for assessment options (free-form, self-directed discussion) Report back from groups by selected participants and comments by trainers (5 mins. each group) Tea Break 10.00 – 10.30 Report back from groups by selected participants and comments by trainers (5 mins. each group) Tea Break 11.00 – 12:30 Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); Use of different teaching methodologies; and assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 19. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) – PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 – 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) Lunch break 19. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) – PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 – 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) 2.00-2.30 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 2.30 – 3.30 Pescription of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law CLOSING SESSION: COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.30 – 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen Presentation: Assessment options Presentation: Assessment options: Prescriptive v consultative assessment schemes Oral v written assessment Examination v written assignment (including nature of examination) e.g., take home?) Class presentations (includinally group assessment) Problem-based v essay-style questions v multiple choice questions Self-assessment v peer-assessment Pearticipants to be divided into five groups to discuss their preferences for assessment options (free-form, self-directed discussion) Report back from groups by selected participants and comments by trainers (5 mins. each group) Report back from groups by selected participants and comments by trainers (5 mins. each group) Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: - Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); - Use of different teaching methodologies; and - assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(7) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 12.30 – 1.30 DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) – PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 – 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 2.30 – 3.30 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. CLOSING SESSION : COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW CLOSING SESSION : COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW CLOSING SESSION : Course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Present free-form discussion of course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler - Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler - Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler - Winnie Carruth
Prescriptive v consultative assessment schemes Oral v written assignment (including nature of examination (e.g., take home?) Class presentations (individual ygroup assessment) Problem-based v essay-style questions v multiple choice questions Self-assessment v peer-assessment Participants to be divided into five groups to discuss their preferences for assessment to be divided into five groups to discuss their preferences for assessment to be divided into five groups to discuss their preferences for assessment options (free-form, self-directed discussion) Tea Break BESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 3) – DESIGN EXERCISE Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); Use of different teaching methodologies; and assessment options as covered in the TIT course, Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) – PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 – 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) Presentation of the IUCN World Commission or comment on design challenges identified. 2.30 – 3.30 Preserve for the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law Tea Break CLOSING SESSION: COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.45-4.15. Plenary free-form discussion of course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Robert - Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler - Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler - Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler - Win		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Oral written assessment Examination v. written assignment (including nature of examination (e.g., take home?) Class presentations (individual group assessment) Problem-based v. essay-style questions v. multiple choice questions Self-assessment v. peer-assessment Participants to be divided into five groups to discuss their preferences for assessment options (free-form, self-directed discussion) Report back from groups by selected participants and comments by trainers (5 mins. each group) Tea Break 10.00 – 10.30 Report back from groups by selected participants and comments by trainers (5 mins. each group) Tea Break 10.00 – 12:30 Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); Use of different teaching methodologies; and assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 12.30 – 1.30 Lunch break 19. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) – PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 – 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) All trainers 2.00 – 2.30 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law 2.00 – 3.30 Tea Break CLOSING SESSION: COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.45-4.15. Plenary free-form discussion of course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen	9:15 - 9:30	·	Natasha Affolder
Examination v written assignment (including nature of examination (e.g., take home?) Class presentations (individual v group assessment) Problem-based v essay-style questions v multiple choice questions Self-assessment v peer-assessment 9.30 - 10:00 Participants to be divided into five groups to discuss their preferences for assessment options (free-form, self-directed discussion) 10.00 - 10:30 Report back from groups by selected participants and comments by trainers (5 mins, each group) 10.30 - 11.00 Tea Break 18. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 3) - DESIGN EXERCISE 11:00 - 12:30 Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: - Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); - Use of different teaching methodologies; and - assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 19. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) - PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 - 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) 2.00 - 2.30 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. - Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law - Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law - Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law - Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law - Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law - Description of Environmental Law Course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth 2.45-4.15. Plenary free-form discussion of course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen		·
Class presentations (individual v group assessment) Problem-based v essay-style questions v multiple choice questions Self-assessment v peer-assessment Participants to be divided into five groups to discuss their preferences for assessment options (free-form, self-directed discussion) Report back from groups by selected participants and comments by trainers (5 mins. each group) Tea Break 18. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 3) — DESIGN EXERCISE 11:00 – 12:30 Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: - Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); - Use of different teaching methodologies; and - assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 19. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) — PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1:30 – 2:00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) 2:00-2:30 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 2:30 – 3:00 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law Tea Break CLOSING SESSION: COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3:30 – 3:45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen
Problem-based v essay-style questions v multiple choice questions Self-assessment v peer-assessment v
9.30 - 10:00 Participants to be divided into five groups to discuss their preferences for assessment options (free-form, self-directed discussion) 10.00 - 10:30 Report back from groups by selected participants and comments by trainers (5 mins. each group) 10.30 - 11:00 Tea Break 18. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 3) — DESIGN EXERCISE 11:00 - 12:30 Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: - Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); - Use of different teaching methodologies; and - assessment options as covered in the TIT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(7) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 19. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) — PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 - 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) 2.00-2.30 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 2.30 - 3.00 Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law - Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law - Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law - Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law - Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Carruth - The Break 20 CLOSING SESSION : COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.30 - 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth - Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen
9.30 - 10:00 Participants to be divided into five groups to discuss their preferences for assessment options (free-form, self-directed discussion) 10.00 - 10.30 Report back from groups by selected participants and comments by trainers (5 mins. each group) 10.30 - 11.00 Tea Break 18. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 3) - DESIGN EXERCISE 11:00 - 12:30 Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: - Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); - Use of different teaching methodologies; and - assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 12.30 - 1.30 Lunch break 19. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) - PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 - 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) 2.00 - 2.30 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 2.30 - 3.00 Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law - Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law - Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law - Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law - Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Carruth - Carrut assessment options (free-form, self-directed discussion) 10.00 – 10.30 Report back from groups by selected participants and comments by trainers (5 mins. each group) 10.30 – 11.00 Tea Break 18. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 3) – DESIGN EXERCISE 11:00 – 12:30 Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: - Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); - Use of different teaching methodologies; and - assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 19. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) – PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 – 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) 2.00-2.30 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 2.30 – 3.00 • Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law • Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law 3.00 – 3.30 Tea Break 20 CLOSING SESSION : COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.30 – 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen	9 30 - 10:00
(5 mins. each group) 10.30 – 11.00 Tea Break 18. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 3) – DESIGN EXERCISE 11:00 – 12:30 Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: - Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); - Use of different teaching methodologies; and - assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 12.30 – 1.30 Lunch break 19. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) – PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 – 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 2.00 – 2.30 Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law - Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law - Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law 2.00 CLOSING SESSION: COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.30 – 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth 3.45-4.15. Plenary free-form discussion of course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen	3.30 10.00
18. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 3) — DESIGN EXERCISE 11:00 – 12:30 Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: - Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); - Use of different teaching methodologies; and - assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 19. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) — PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 – 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 2.30 – 3.00 • Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law • Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law 3.00 – 3.30 Tea Break 20 CLOSING SESSION: COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.30 – 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth 3.45-4.15. Plenary free-form discussion of course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen	10.00 – 10.30		Local trainer
Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); Use of different teaching methodologies; and assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 12.30 – 1.30 Lunch break 19. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) – PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 – 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) All trainers 2.00-2.30 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 2.30 – 3.00 Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law OCUSING SESSION: COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.30 – 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen	10.30 - 11.00
Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); Use of different teaching methodologies; and assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 12.30 – 1.30 Lunch break 19. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) – PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 – 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) All trainers 2.00-2.30 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 2.30 – 3.00 Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law OCUSING SESSION: COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.30 – 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen	10 DESIG	NING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COLIDSE (DART 3) - DESIGN EVER	CISE
Participants to work individually on course design outline that addresses: Course content (areas of environmental law to be taught); Use of different teaching methodologies; and assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 12.30 – 1.30 Lunch break 19. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) – PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 – 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 2.00-2.30 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 3.00 – 3.00 Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law CLOSING SESSION: COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.30 – 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen			CISE
taught); - Use of different teaching methodologies; and - assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 12.30 – 1.30			Rob Fowler to coordinate
- assessment options as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 12.30 – 1.30		· ·
as covered in the TTT course. Prepare a course outline for a 14(?) week course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 12.30 – 1.30		 Use of different teaching methodologies; and course, then a more detailed plan of course content and teaching methodology for 2-3-weeks. 12.30 – 1.30		- assessment options methodology for 2-3-weeks. 12.30 – 1.30
19. DESIGNING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) – PRESENTATION of COURSE DESIGNS + 1.30 – 2.00 Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) 2.00-2.30 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 2.30 – 3.00 • Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law • Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law 3.00 – 3.30 Tea Break 20 CLOSING SESSION: COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.30 – 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth 3.45-4.15. Plenary free-form discussion of course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen		· ·
Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) 2.00-2.30 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 2.30 – 3.00 Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law 3.00 – 3.30 Tea Break CLOSING SESSION: COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.30 – 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen	12.30 – 1.30	Lunch break
Presentation by participants of their course outlines and feedback in small groups of 3 (10 mins each) 2.00-2.30 Plenary free-form discussion: Participants to ask questions or comment on design challenges identified. 2.30 – 3.00 Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law 3.00 – 3.30 Tea Break CLOSING SESSION: COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.30 – 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen
1.30 - 2.00 groups of 3 (10 mins each) All trainers	19. DESIG	NING AN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW COURSE (PART 4) – PRESENTATIO	ON of COURSE DESIGNS +
design challenges identified. 2.30 – 3.00 Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law Tea Break CLOSING SESSION: COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.30 – 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Chacrit Sitdhiwej Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Chacrit Sitdhiwej Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen	1.30 – 2.00		All trainers
2.30 – 3.00 • Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law • Description of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law 3.00 – 3.30 Tea Break CLOSING SESSION: COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.30 – 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth 3.45-4.15. Plenary free-form discussion of course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen	2.00-2.30
3.00 – 3.30 Tea Break CLOSING SESSION : COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen	2.30 - 3.00	Description of the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law
20 CLOSING SESSION : COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW 3.30 – 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth 3.45-4.15. Plenary free-form discussion of course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen		·	Winnie Carruth
3.30 – 3.45 Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network Rob Fowler + Winnie Carruth 3.45-4.15. Plenary free-form discussion of course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen	3.00 – 3.30	Tea Break
3.45-4.15. Plenary free-form discussion of course outcomes/in-country networking Rob Fowler + Nuthamon Kongcharoen	20 CLOSI	NG SESSION : COURSE OUTCOMES & REVIEW
Kongcharoen	3.30 – 3.45	Champions Session: Creation of Environmental Law Champions Network
4.15-4.30 Completion of Course Evaluation forms by participants	3.45-4.15.	Plenary free-form discussion of course outcomes/in-country networking
	4.15-4.30	Completion of Course Evaluation forms by participants

4.30 - 5.00	Closing Ceremony:	All trainers
	 presentation of Course Certificates closing speeches	