- (3) The Railways will pay actual interest charges on all foreign loans including existing foreign loans obtained for them. They will also be responsible for repayment of the foreign loans required for rehabilitation and replacement of their assets. The General Revenues will be responsible for the repayment of foreign loans raised for additions and development of the Railways. As and when an instalment towards repayment of a loan is paid by the General Revenues, the Railways will cease to pay interest on the loan to that extent and the amount of the instalment will be added to the Government's investment in Railways and will qualify for 4% return in accordance with clause (1) above.

THE CENTRAL ADAPTATION OF LAWS ORDER, 1964. ✓

PRESIDENT'S ORDER No. 1 OF 1964

[27th May, 1964]

WHEREAS clause (1) of Article 225 of the Constitution provides that, except as provided by the said Article, all existing laws shall, subject to the Constitution, continue in force, so far as applicable and with the necessary adaptations, until altered, repealed or amended by the appropriate legislature ;

AND WHEREAS clause (4) of the said Article provides that, for the purpose of bringing the provisions of any existing law into accord with the provisions of the Constitution, the President may make, by Order, such adaptations, whether by way of modification, addition or omission, as he may deem to be necessary or expedient ;

AND WHEREAS it is necessary to make certain adaptations in the laws in force immediately before the commencing day ;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred as aforesaid and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, the President is pleased to make the following Order :—

1.—(1) This order may be called the Central Adaptation of Laws Order, 1964.
