

ORDINANCE XXI OF 1960

CENTRAL LAWS (STATUTE REFORM) ORDINANCE, 1960

An Ordinance to reform the Central Statute-book

[Gazette, Extraordinary, 9th June 1960]

Whereas the incorporation of certain former Provinces, Acceding States and Tribal Areas into the Province of West Pakistan by the Establishment of West Pakistan Act, 1955, has rendered it expedient that certain changes should be made in the laws and that certain laws should be extended to parts of the new Province to which they had not extended before ;

And whereas such extension has been agreed upon in consultation with the Provincial Government of West Pakistan and the other authorities concerned ;

And whereas it is expedient to remove from the Statute-book certain Acts and Ordinances which have become obsolete or have discharged their function ;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Proclamation of the seventh day of October, 1958, and in exercise of all powers enabling him in that behalf, the President is pleased to make and promulgate the following Ordinance :—

1. Short title.—This Ordinance may be called the Central Laws (Statute Reform) Ordinance, 1960.

2. Repeal of certain Central Acts and Ordinances.—The Central Acts and Ordinances specified in the First Schedule are hereby repealed, and shall be deemed to have been so repealed on the fourteenth day of October, 1955.

3. Amendments to effect adaptation of Central Acts and Ordinances necessitated by the establishment of West Pakistan.—(1) Save as otherwise expressly provided in any Central Act or Ordinance, the Central Acts and Ordinances specified in the Second Schedule shall extend to the whole of Pakistan, and shall be amended in the manner indicated in the fourth column thereof, and shall be deemed to have been so extended and amended on the fourteenth day of October, 1955.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall be deemed to extend, or ever to have had the effect of extending the operation of, any Central Act or Ordinance so extended or amended, to—

(a) any Scheduled District to which, immediately before the fourteenth day of October, 1955, such Act or Ordinance did not extend, or is not otherwise extended or applied thereafter ; or

(b) any of the Special Areas to which, immediately before the fourteenth day of October, 1955, such Act or Ordinance did not extend, or is not otherwise extended or applied thereafter ; or

(c) any Acceding State, not being an Acceding State incorporated, on and from the fourteenth day of October, 1955, into the Province of West Pakistan, whose Instrument of Accession does not authorize, nor is deemed to authorize, the Federal Legislature to make for that State such law as is contained in any such Act or Ordinance ;

nor shall the extension of any Central Act or Ordinance by this Ordinance be deemed to have or ever to have had the effect of retrospectively creating any offence, or of retrospectively enhancing the punishment for any offence provided in any law for the time being in force.

4. Repeal and re-enactment of certain laws in force in certain Acceding States before their incorporation into West Pakistan.—(1) Subject always to the provisions of subsection (2) of section 3, where the operation of any Central Act or Ordinance has been extended by an amendment indicated in the Second Schedule to any area which, before the fourteenth day of October, 1955, formed part of the territories of an Acceding State, any law in force in that area before that date and corresponding to the provisions of such Act or Ordinance shall stand repealed, and shall be deemed to have been re-enacted by such Act or Ordinance, as amended by this Ordinance, as if such law were a Central Act, and the provisions of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (X of 1897), shall apply accordingly.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), anything done, action taken, right accrued, or liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred, under any such law as aforesaid during the period commencing on the fourteenth day of October, 1955, and ending with the commencement of this Ordinance, shall be deemed to have been validly done, taken, accrued or incurred, as the case may be, and the Central Act or Ordinance by which such law is deemed to have been re-enacted shall, to that extent, be deemed not to have come into force during the said period in the area to which such law applied immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance.

5. Savings.—Without prejudice to the other provisions of this Ordinance, the repeal by this Ordinance of any Central Act or Ordinance shall not affect—

(a) the previous operation of any Act or Ordinance so repealed or the validity, invalidity, effect or consequences of anything already done or suffered thereunder; or

(b) any right, title, privilege, obligation or liability, acquired, accrued or incurred thereunder or any release or discharge already granted or from any debt, penalty, obligation, liability, claim or demand, or any indemnity, already granted, or the proof of any past act or thing; or

(c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any Act or Ordinance so repealed; or

(d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, title, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid;

and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed, as if this Ordinance had not been enacted;

nor shall the repeal of any Act or Ordinance by which the text of any law was amended by the express omission, insertion or substitution of any matter, affect the continuance of any such amendment unless a different intention was expressly stated in the Act or Ordinance by which the amendment was made;

nor shall this Ordinance revive or restore anything not in force or existing at the time of its commencement, or affect any law in which any Act or Ordinance hereby repealed has been applied, incorporated or referred to, or affect any principle or rule of law, or established jurisdiction, form, or cause of pleading, practice, or procedure, or existing usage, custom, privilege, restriction, exemption, office or appointment, notwithstanding that they respectively may have been in any manner affirmed, recognized or derived by, in or from any Act or Ordinance hereby repealed.
